These lectures will be delivered by Zoom and are all free of charge to JHSE members and are £5 to non-members. Sign up for the lectures at <https://jhse.org/events>.

In these difficult times if anyone does not have the means to pay please contact us (in strictest confidence) as we have a small fund to cover costs in such cases and we don't want anyone to miss out on hearing these excellent talks. Please also let us know if you would like help accessing the Zoom app (this assistance needs to be requested before the date of the lecture and not on the date of the lecture itself).
